

Jefferson College Events and Opportunities for Students

Hello,

I'm just sharing a couple upcoming events in case you have students interested in film or Social Work.

Jefferson College will have a 48 Hour Film Festival where students can produce a short film and have it screened in the Fine Arts Theater. This is a competition for students interested in film. The team that wins will receive a cash prize. Teams can have up to five members. The competition begins Friday, March 15th and ends Sunday, March 17th. Students must attend the kick off on Friday, March 15th at 5:00 p.m. at the Hillsboro Campus, Fine Arts Building, Room 210. The public film screening of all films will be Friday, April 26th at 7:00 p.m. in the Fine Arts Theater. If students have questions, they can contact Nick Nihira at nnihira@jeffco.edu.

On April 1st, Jefferson College will have a Social Work event. If you have any students interested in a career in Social Work, this would be a great event for them to attend. The event will take place at the Hillsboro campus on April 1st from 12:00-4:00 p.m. There will be a variety of representatives of practice settings in Social Work, as well as schools with accredited BSW programs and information about Jefferson College's pre-Social Work program. If students have any questions, they can contact Susan Welch at swelch1@jeffco.edu.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thank you! :)
