

Many companies sponsor Matching Gifts programs and match charitable contributions made by employees to eligible non-profit and education organizations. Close Up Foundation is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization (Federal Identification Number 23-7122882) and is eligible to receive donations through many Matching Gifts programs.

If your employer offers this program, your Human Resources department should provide you with information and instructions to complete a Matching Gifts request. Some companies have an online portal and others will give you a form to fill out and send to the receiving organization. Paper forms should be mailed with your donation to:

Close Up Foundation
